Where am I covered?

- ✓ The buildings and contents cover provided by this insurance applies to insured property in the Republic of Ireland.
- ✓ Optional all risks cover for personal belongings and jewellery applies to the Republic of Ireland, Northern Ireland, Great Britain, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, and for not more than 60 days in any one period of insurance while elsewhere in the world.
- ✓ Your liability cover applies to each loss against all sums which you become legally liable for as owner of the insured property.

What are my obligations?

- When applying for your policy and completing your pre-contract application form, you must answer all questions honestly and with reasonable care. Please note that failure to do so may result in your policy being cancelled or we may refuse to deal with any claims or reduce the amount of a claim payment, as detailed under the Impact of Misrepresentation section in your policy wording document, which you should read carefully.
- You must contact us immediately or as soon as reasonably possible, if any answers or information provided in your completed application form are inaccurate or have changed beyond what was reasonably contemplated when the contract of insurance was concluded as this may affect the cover provided and any claims made by you on your policy.
- You must take all reasonable steps to avoid or reduce any loss (for example, you should notify a plumber upon discovering any escape of water)
- If you make a claim, you must provide documents and other evidence that we need to deal with your claim.
- The reinstatement value of your building must be sufficient to cover the cost of rebuilding your house in compliance with current building regulations.
- The buildings sum insured you select needs to be sufficient to fully reinstate or rebuild your private house, boundary walls, gates and outbuildings.

When and how do I pay?

You can pay for your insurance before policy cover begins by monthly instalments or all at once. This can be done by direct debit or in full by way of credit card, debit card or cheque.

When does the cover start and end?

Your policy start and end dates will be confirmed in your policy schedule. Unless otherwise specified on your policy documents, the duration of your insurance contract will be 12 months. Your exact period of insurance including cover start and end date will be outlined on your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the contract and What is my cooling off period?

You can cancel in writing (by mail/fax/letter) and such cancellation will take effect upon receipt of the written cancellation request by us. You will however be charged a pro rata premium for the period you were on cover. You have 14 days from the start date of the policy to write to us if you want to cancel your insurance policy. This is known as a cooling off period.

If no claims have been made during the period of insurance, we will refund a percentage of the premium in proportion to the period of insurance left unused. This is subject to administration charges we may make, please refer to our terms of business on www.aig.ie for more information.

Please refer to your policy wording document terms and conditions for full details on cancellation and cooling off.
