

We must wait in line to show our passports and tickets.

Next we stop, scan and go through security. We put our stuff in the trays (even your toys) and the machine scans it.

Everyone walks through the open door. We all get our stuff back on the other side. See, it's easy!

Now we check the board for our gate number and go wait for our plane!

